

The Whiskymaker's Reserve No.6

The Whiskymaker's Reserve is an artistic exploration of oak and blending; of flavour evolution and defining a house style. Creating a new whisky requires a framework of sorts, but there must be room within it to play, to follow gut feeling and instinct. The architecture of each release of Whiskymaker's Reserve will evolve in keeping with both our increasing sherry cask influence and our sense of adventure.

Matured in the finest, meticulously sourced Oloroso, PX and red wine casks, this complex and aromatic release transports you to the bustle of moorish bazaars, The Whiskymaker's Reserve No.6 brings exotic spice and delicate fragrant character to the forefront whilst maintaining the bold style synonymous with The Whiskymaker's Reserve.

Enjoy as you please. Try adding a few drops of water to open the flavours.

TASTING NOTES

NOSE

Vanilla, juicy winey red fruit, plump raisins, and sticky dates, as well as a tart, hibiscus-like floral undertone.

PALATE

Smooth and buttery oak, more red fruit, alongside raisins, sultanas, plums and sticky notes of runny honey.

FINISH

A fragrant incense note with an aftertaste that last for a long time.
