SILKIE
IRISH WHISKEY

The Legendary Dark Silkie

Sliabh Liag Distillers has shown its smoky side with this Irish blend, dubbed The Legendary Dark Silkie! Taking inspiration from 19th century Donegal whiskey, a triple distilled peated single malt is at the core of this expression, peated to about 22ppm and matured in sherry casks. It's then blended with a bourbon-matured single malt as well as a grain whiskey having been rested in virgin oak. The result is a fruity, subtly smoky and dry bottling which is sure to convert Irish whiskey lovers to a hint of peat!
